

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR CODE OF CONDUCT

1. All junior livestock exhibitors will refrain from any use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language during the Siskiyou Golden Fair. They will also refrain from being in the company of minors who are using alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language.
2. All junior livestock exhibitors will treat their animals in a safe and humane manner. Their animals will have the necessary feed and water during the entire time they are at the fairgrounds.
3. All junior livestock exhibitors will keep their animal pens clean and free of hazards at all times.
4. All junior livestock exhibitors will treat adults, especially those in authority, with respect.
5. All junior livestock exhibitors will follow all local and state rules that apply to their particular projects.
6. All junior livestock exhibitors staying in the fair's RV Park or visiting friends in the fair's RV Park will abide by all curfews and all other RV Park rules.
7. No junior livestock exhibitors will allow an adult to perform the junior exhibitors' duties including fitting an animal for show, cleaning pens, feeding or watering. Junior exhibitors may exchange duties with fellow club members or fellow junior exhibitors as a matter of team work.

Exhibiting livestock at the Siskiyou Golden Fair is a privilege and must be respected as such. To that end, all junior exhibitors who wish to sell and/or show at the Siskiyou Golden Fair must adhere to the above Code of Conduct to be eligible to participate in the fair. This Code of Conduct covers conduct of the exhibitor from the Monday before opening day of the fair through Sunday, the last day of the fair. Violations of the Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. An investigation of alleged violations will be conducted and a decision rendered by the appropriate involved parties according to the Code of Conduct Protocol. Violations may result in loss of right to sell animals at the auction.
