“HOW TO GET TO AUCTION--THE RIGHT WAY” AN EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR FOR ALL JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

YREKA – On March 8th Siskiyou Golden Fair junior livestock exhibitors have the opportunity to gain needed knowledge and information about getting market animals to the annual junior livestock auction using industry approved practices.

The Siskiyou Golden Fair will present “How to Get to Auction--the Right Way”. This program will include a presentation from award winning livestock judge and Nutrena Feed representative Frank Ward and new rules for the 2012 fair. This seminar will count as quality assurance training for all junior livestock exhibitors that attend. The information presented will be beneficial for parents and leaders as well as the junior exhibitors.

“We are very excited to bring this program to our junior livestock exhibitors,” said fair CEO Cliff Munson. “There is so much to learn about the proper way to raise and care for project animals and we want to help the junior exhibitors as much as possible.” The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. Winema Hall at the fairgrounds.

Junior livestock exhibitors who are taking animals to the 2012 fair will need to take quality assurance training if they have not taken it before. Exhibitors ages 9-11 must take the training every two years and those ages 12 and above must take it every five years. If you are not sure if you need the training in 2012, please call the fair office at 842-2767 to double check. All new junior livestock exhibitors must take the training this year.

The 2012 Siskiyou Golden Fair “Fun in the Mountain Sun!” will run August 8-12 in Yreka. For more information call the fair office at 530-842-2767, or e-mail at info@sisqfair.com.
